

“Ba-ROOMP,” said the Little Green Frog

Traditional

C

“Ba-ROOMP,” said the little green frog one day,

G7

“Ba-ROOMP,” said the little green frog,

C

F

“Ba-ROOMP,” said the little green frog one day,

G7

F

G7

C

And the frog said “BROOMP, BROOMP, BROOMP.”

G7

C

But... we... [faster] all know frogs say, “La-dee-da-dee-dah,

G7

C

“La-dee-da-dee-dah, La-dee-da-dee-dah,”

C

We all know frogs say, “La-dee-da-dee-dah”—

F

G7

C

They don’t say, “BROOMP, BROOMP, BROOMP.”

[Slow down again, and repeat both verses the same way. I have heard other verses, although I haven’t sung them. Two examples:]

“HONK HONK,” said the big Mack truck one day...

and

“Moo-OO!” said the cow in the field one day...

[The “La-dee-da” verse remains the same. You can make up all kinds of verses this way.]
